"GEE WHIZ, I WOULDN'T HAVE BELIEVED IT" seems to be what pretty Karen Smith is thinking as Bob Ruge watches the reaction. Find out what was said in the annual spring play, "Candlelight," beginning tomorrow at the Drama Center with Karen as "Marie" and Bob as the "Baron."

Pitching Problem Acute

The signing of professional contracts by three of his most promising pitchers has left Lou Saccone with a big problem as he begins his first year as varsity baseball coach.

Although his club began practice on March 10 in preparation for the season's opener against Hunter College on April 7 in New York, Saccone inherited a club with only two pitchers with previous experience, namely, Bernie "Skip" DePace and Bob Sullivan.

Three former UB chukkers were signed by the Red Sox. They were Pete Brown, the varsity's best hurler, Hugo Papstein, the yearling's best pitcher, and Alan Yaeger, a freshman.

As far as the other positions are concerned, returning lettermen will probably fill the remainder of the positions but, Saccone warns, they will have to hustle for their positions. Holdovers are outfielders, Bob Sveda, Jerry McDougal and Garry Engler; infielders, Charlie Pike, Jim Kirk, who fractured an ankle early in the season's opener last year, Dave Quagliozzi; catchers, John Aslan and Charley Milot.

This year will also usher in the newly formed league called the Collegiate Baseball League, comprised of seven schools from Connecticut, New York and New Jersey. The league was formed to give the smaller schools of the three states some recognition. The schools are: the University of Bridgeport, Fairfield University, Fairleigh Dickinson, Rider College, St. Peter's, Seton Hall and Upsala.

The Purple Knights' 20 game schedule lists 11 home encounters and nine on the road: April 7-Hunter (away) 2 p.m.; 10-Adelphi (away) 3 p.m.; 12-L.I.U. (away) 1:30 p.m.; 15-Fairleigh Dickinson 2 p.m.; 17-St. Peter's, 2 p.m.; 19-Springfield, 2 p.m.; 21-Hartford, 2 p.m.; 25-Upsala (away) 3 p.m.; 28-Fairfield, 2 p.m.; May 1-Seton Hall (away) 4 p.m.; 3-Clark (away) 2:30 p.m.; 5-Hofstra (away) 3 p.m.; 7-Providence 2 p.m.; 10-American International, 2 p.m.; 12-Fairfield (away) 2 p.m.; 10-American International, 2 p.m.; 17-Iona, 2 p.m.; 19-New Haven STC, 2 p.m.; 21-New Britain STC (away) 3 p.m.

Nurses Get $500 Grant

Mrs. Sylvia R. Riley, head nurse at the University's Health Center, was one of three Milford nurses to benefit from the new $500 grant that was given to the College of Nursing.

The unrestricted grant was given by the Tuberculosis Committee of the Milford Visiting Nurse Association, Dean Martha P. Jayne, announced.

The grant is in addition to two $600 scholarships established by the Milford group for the college last year.

Need for more trained nurses, a desire to aid in the development of the College of Nursing and recognition of the good work being done by the college were cited by Miss Katherine Scannell, president of the Milford VNA, and Mrs. Richard M. Schreiber, treasurer of the Tuberculosis Committee, as reasons for the gift.

Mrs. Riley, an employee of Milford Hospital, will utilize her scholarship this summer to work for her bachelor's degree.

The other recipients of the gifts are Mrs. Helen Webster, supervisor of obstetrics at the Milford Hospital, who is attending on a part-time basis, and Mrs. Alys L. Nemth, also employed by the Milford Hospital, who is a full-time student at the University.

Deferment Test Called For May

All male students eligible for military service who wish a deferment for the coming year should take the Selective Service Qualification Test which will be administered at Yale University on May.

Application cards and instructional materials pertaining to the test may be obtained at the Students Selective Service Board or the Office of Student Personnel between March 17 and April 8.

According to the Office of Student Personnel, students are reminded that taking this test can not adversely affect their opportunity for deferment—and might even help it.

CONVOCATION

"Solar Energy and the Bell Telephone Battery" will be the subject of a convocation on March 19 in T-101. Sponsored by the engineering department, the convocation will have Dr. Daryl M. Chapin of the Bell Telephone Laboratories as guest speaker.

Comedy in Three Acts

Smith, Kopin, Luby to Star In New Dickason Production

"Candlelight," a comedy in three acts, will be produced by the Office of Campus Productions tomorrow, Saturday and Monday at the Drama Center at 8:30 p.m.

The title is from the old quotation: "Choose neither women nor linen by candlelight." It tells how Prince Rudolf's valet falls in love with a pretty voice over the telephone. He invites his charmer to his master's apartment and disguises himself as the Prince. Matters become complicated when the Prince returns, discovers the plot, and assumes his valet's role.

The cast includes Charles Kopin as Josef, Stanley Luby as Prince Rudolf and Karen Smith as Marie in the lead roles. Supporting actors are Barbara Sanislo as Lotte; Robert Ruge as Baron Von Rischenheim; Bobbie Blenden as Baroness Von Rischenheim; John Scully as the Waiter; and Don Kaiser as Koepke.

The play, which critics have acclaimed as arid, wiry wit that is capital entertainment, has been one of Europe's favorite for many years. Written by Siegfried Geyer, and adapted from the German by P.G. Wodehouse, the play was originally produced on Broadway with Gertrude Lawrence and Leslie Howard.

Tickets will be on sale today until 7 p.m. and tomorrow from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the Drama Center box office.

Student activity cards will be honored but must be exchanged at the box office for a theater ticket.

Albert A. Dickason is directing the play and rehearsals have been going on for several weeks.

Members of the technical cast are: John Reed, stage manager; Kenneth Byers, setting; Doris Newman, business manager; Bernard Goldberg, lighting assistant; and Gerald Greenstein and Joan Koehler, staff assistants.

Drama Group 'Knights' 14

The Knights of Thunder, the University's first honorary alumni society, initiated fourteen students last week into the society recognizing their participation in theatrical presentations of the Office of Campus production.

New members, "dubbed by the spotlight," symbol in the knighthood ceremony, include: Richard Ameis, Bill Pura, Bernie Goldberg, Joe Messineo, Debbie Pensak, Ernest Svab, John Scully, Rose Sievers, Phil Bush, Carol Blank, Charles Kopin, Vinny Falcone, Rosalie Printz and Jeff Weaver.

The Knights of Thunder was organized in 1949 under the Board of Trustees to secure for the student body all of the advantages of an active honorary dramatic fraternity in addition to furthering the cultural progress of the University as well as the city of Bridgeport in the field of dramatics.

Membership in the society serves as an incentive to keep alive the interest of the alumni in the dramatic productions of the University.

The Knights of Thunder's main project is its annual musical "Campus Thunder," this year scheduled for late in November.

A cocktail party and a dinner dance followed the ceremony. Al Zavadsky had charge of the initiation with John Micka and Leo Muldon assisting.

Sociology Colloquium to Fete Ropp

Dean Ropp

The annual Sociology Dinner under the joint sponsorship of the Sociology Colloquium and Pi Gamma Mu fraternity will be held at Donat's Town Ho Restaurant in Milford with Prof. Emerson G. Chamberlain as master of ceremonies.

This year's affair which will take place tomorrow evening at 5:30 p.m., will honor Dr. Clarence D.L. Ropp, dean of the College of Arts and Science, for his application of, sociological principles to his position as dean.

Dean Ropp started teaching in the Junior College when classes first began in February of 1928. This year marks his 31st consecutive academic year. The Junior College evolved into the University of Bridgeport in 1947 although its two-year program remains an integral part of the University.

Student tickets for the dinner may be purchased from members of these organizations at $3.00;

visitor tickets are $3.50

New officers of the Sociology Colloquium will also be introduced during the evening: Mickey Donahue, president; Joseph O'Brien, first vice-president; Charles Swain, second vice-president; Howard Greene, secretary; Walter Londergan, treasurer; and Joseph Siciliano, sergeant-at-arms.

The Sociology Colloquium and Pi Gamma Mu are under the co-sponsorship of Dr. Joseph S. Roucek, chairman of the sociology and political science departments and Dr. Justus van der Kroef, assistant professor of sociology.

Last fall these two groups were joined by the Political Relations Forum at a dinner, which was held at Nu Champs Restaurant. The Most Rev. Lawrence J. Shehan, Bishop of Bridgeport was the guest speaker. He spoke on "Freedom of the Press-The Catholic Point of View."

Habeas Corpus Blues

Since the conception of Vox Populi in this paper we have received many letters concerning any and all subjects. Many times we do not print all the letters but select the most representative of those dealing with the same problem. We also have maintained that a person can ask that his name be withheld in publication but that he must sign the letter and be responsible for all fact and opinion embodied in the piece. We have gone further and stated that the sender's name would be kept secret if he wished so and that no one could force us to divulge it under the present system of journalistic ethics and courts.

Many students have taken advantage of this medium to get some things off their chests. They also, for very good reasons have asked that their names be withheld. But it would seem that a trend is now starting among faculty and student leaders to disregard any letter that is unsigned. We refer to one specific item here but it has happened in other cases too.

A few weeks ago a letter from "Just a Nobody" charged that many students were getting class cards before they entered registration. The writer stated that he thought this practice unfair and asked that the administration do something about it.

A representative of the Registration Committee wrote an answer to that letter this month that points out the trend. He said that as far as he knew no class cards were handed out on a special preference basis, and that if the writer would care to come to his office and make specific charges he would be glad to look into it. We think this type of outlook is side-stepping the issue. We believe that members of the administration have dreamed up a new technique in dealing with criticism. This is not a direct charge against the representative of the Registration Committee. He if anyone, has done a great deal of work to make it a smooth running procedure and we have said so editorially, but we do think that he and others are starting a trend.

The trend is a simple one. Any department, club, group or the administration as a whole has started to cry "habeas corpus" all over the place and demand that the charger bring in evidence, names, and for all we know thirty feet of film showing the crime in action. We say that this type of thinking is side-stepping the issue because these people seem to have missed the boat about what a "tip" is, and what a "wild guess isn't."

If someone calls the police department and tells them that a man is murdering three people in the street, the men in blue don't ask the person to come in and press charges. Murder is a crime against society and the state, therefore the state must investigate and prosecute. So it is with a person breaking a University rule. It is not up to the individual to collect evidence, he hasn't the power or the right to do that. It is up to the University to investigate the case and see if there is anything to it.

Last month we outlined what we thought were the limits of students' rights and power in an editorial called "The Collegiate Right to Know." We stated then that there were areas of this campus and its administration that had nothing to do with the student and were definitely none of their business. Now the checking, stopping and punishing of class card black marketeers is not the students' business. He only calls the cops to let them know a murder has been committed.

Therefore when an administrator cries Habeas Corpus he has not gotten a good grip on where he stands or what the nature of the crime is. True enough the administration can not track down every crack pot charge that is made by a letter but the content of a letter usually spells out the importance of the problem.

We take this position because we feel that most Vox Popers are honest people caught in cross currents of ethics and tattling. The charge has been made and the administration can go quietly about their business checking it, if the problem seems to warrant it. But it cannot take a concept of law and apply it to an area where it doesn't fit.

University officials might say "How are we to stop something if you won't help?" We haven't asked them to persecute some student for helping a friend to class cards. We have only asked that administrative and clerical steps be taken to stop the practice. We don't want a hanging. We just want to do away with the rope that people are using to hang themselves.

New Vistas

Although some quarters might well have taken offense at last week's feature article concerning the Jacoby lecture series, we feel that in the long run more good will come out of it.

As a newspaper dedicated to expressing student opinion it was necessary to show our feeling about the lecture no matter who disagreed with it.

We believe that Mr. Jacoby set up the lecture series to help students get a better grip on the moot problem of brotherhood... we believe that the constant reference to the U.N. is only looking at part of the issue.

Brotherhood was a problem long before the U.N. and we can't see why this organization should get the spotlight every year. We feel that the students would rather have a change of pace... let us say a debate by a southern and northern senator... that would add embellishments to the brotherhood theme and not just worn out frosting.

The feature article then was meant to prod officials into searching for new vistas for this fine and dignified addition to University life. We well know that the Jacoby committee has done fine work; we only ask them not to get into a rut.

Gifts Reach Record High

Recent contributions to the University of property, scholarships, and grants have amounted to slightly over $100,000 in value.

One of these is the home of the late Mrs. C. Barnum Seeley of Bridgeport. This is the third such gift the University has received during its short history on the Seaside Campus. The others are the homes of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Warner and of Mrs. Louis Hubbell Roche. The buildings remain the property of the present residents for life.

There have also been numerous grants to the College of Nursing. These include two of $1,000 each from the Connecticut Heart Association and the Barnes Foundation, of Bristol, Connecticut.

Unsolicited grants are continuing to reach the University, the latest of which came from the National City Bank of New York.

Unless these gifts are restricted to special purposes, Vice-President Henry Littlefield said, they will be added to the Development Fund and used to help finance the new Science Building.

"These gifts are doubly welcome," added Dr. Littlefield. "They are appreciated not only for their beauty and value but because they represent the good opinion of our next-door neighbors."

Rare Art Arrives Here

Frederick Starr of Westport has donated his rare art library to the University. The gift, valued at $3,000, contains many volumes of work on art, prints, lithographs and reproductions of several great masters.

The Starr collection is a major contribution to the art collection in the library, Joseph R. Kritch, reference librarian, emphasized.

Poke Fun at New Rule

by Bobbie Trough

Television is the drawing card but "goo goo eyes" can ruin everything.

The story which was printed in the Scribe concerning rules governing girls in men's dorms was picked up and interpreted by the Bridgeport Sunday Herald and the New York Post.

When the Herald got hold of it, the main point of interest was not the restrictions placed upon the guys and their dolls, but the fact that "goo-goo eyes can ruin the whole deal." In other words, they said that any display of affection will terminate the end of a perfect set-up.

The New York Post stressed neither goo-goo eyes nor rules—they stressed television! "But it's not the company of men that delight the coed—it's the television—for the men's dorms have TV and the girls' dorms don't," the Post staidly reported. Another note of interest was added by the Post, "Two things are reported irking the coeds:

A man must invite a girl into a male dorm. This means that girls without invitations will be denied Frank Sinatra.

The boy must go over to the girl's quarters and walk her into the dorm. This means that if the boy is late, the girl will miss Frank's opening number."

So far, the plan has been working without incident.

Summer Jobs Appears Dim For Students

Mrs. Mildred Ferrera, assistant director of placement, predicted that summer employment will be on the wane this year with the exception of the traditional camp jobs.

It is unlikely that a reversal of the national recession would make more temporary employment available, she explained, because those laid off would be first in line for jobs. However, the June graduate need not panic, according to Frank Wright director of Industrial Coordination and Placement; stiffer requirements and fewer jobs to choose from will be their only obstacles to surmount.

Mr. Wright claimed that the present unemployed belong to the ranks of the unskilled and professional groups, and that there is still a demand for persons on the highly skilled and professional levels.

Theta Sigma membership is increased by six new brothers.

The worthy ones are: Andre Guilbert, Fred B. Reichert, Charles "Fingers" Huestes, Bill "Calf" Hurlihy, Dick Wright and Lou Hoyda.

Their pledge trips will remain in their minds for many a "Moo!"

We have heard the old cliché of how Faith can move mountains; but Tom Nugent tells of how Faith can move giants. Now, what does he mean by that?

The appealing frame of Joanne Alechnowicz was seen adorning the pages of one of the local gazettes. This time she didn't have her books with her.

Ed Chin, while escorting pledges through Greenwich Village, was lost during the night. When found, it took two brothers to pull him away from the stage. Never knew Ed was so fond of art.

Many strange things happened this past weekend. Sorriest of all was the keystone report that Ed Noonan's Lenten pledge to stay away from beer was broken. Broken! It was disintegrated.

The brothers of SPA wish to extend their sincere thanks to all who attended the Cotton Ball Caper. Gathering from all the reports we've heard, the people who attended the Caper thought it was one of the social highlights of the year, especially the show the brothers put on.

The political machine of OSR has a few more wheels being added this week. The pledging activities are being carried on by Carroll Britain, Frank Forni, Red "Rabbit" McDermott, George Mues, Foster Mues, Bob Morgan and Thomas Patrick Lipkowitz.

POC has selected five men to sport the green beret, green bow tie and goatee which symbolize their pledges. The bearded ones include: Marty Rigor, Wayne Mc-

Duffy, Sonny Estren, Mel Klein and Ted Heller.

Chi Sigma Delta has three charming lassies wearing those red skating skirts. Cicile Goldberg, Sue Levi and Judy Rogers are the girls carrying on the merriment.

KBP's pledges, John Marshall, Mike Landolphi, John Fogarty, Bob McCulloch, Walt Drozeck, Harold Windsor, Warren Helstein, Bob Budd and Tom "Knees" Richards provided entertainment at the "Twin Party" the brothers held. Bob Lynch and Marcia Terhume won by a mile the award for the most unique costume.

A very reliable source related the story that Ron V. Miller, while under the duress of hooch, or if you please eau de vie, carried on a conversation with a monkey. The greatest indignation came when Ron lost the argument to his new found friend. The authenticity of this may be acquired from Joe Schlachter.

Polio Shots Set For This Month

Mrs. Sylvia Riley, University nurse, announced that polio vaccine shots are available to all students during March at the University Health Center any morning before 10 o'clock.

A $1.00 fee will be charged for those under 21 and a $2.00 charge will be made for those over 21.

The Connecticut State Department of Health has stated everyone should get the next shot in their series of three and that those who have had all three should get a booster shot.

Decals to Replace Stickers

Beginning in the fall, University car owners will receive decals instead of stickers. T. W. Nowlan, chairman of the Parking Committee, stated that the faculty and staff will receive yellow decals which will expire in 1963. Students will receive purple decals which will be good for only one year. "The reason for this move," said Mr. Nowlan, "is because the stickers now in use fade very quickly, making identification very difficult."

In regard to the Student Council and Parking Committee proposal which would prohibit freshman from having cars on campus, he said, "The administration does not feel that this is the answer to the parking problem at this time."

He added, "Our biggest problem is in catching up with violators who do not register their cars with the University, causing extensive automobile registration investigations." Therefore, Mr. Nolan urges that these offenders pay their fines immediately in order to avoid embarrassing situations that may occur the time of examinations and graduation.

'Wait 'Til Next Year'

You don't ordinarily find much consolation in a 2-16 record by any stretch of the imagination but after the brilliant performance against their traditional foe, Fairfield University, the University basketball picture has suddenly brightened up considerably.

This is due to several factors. First of all, the victory over the Stags proved once and for all that the Glinesmen have guts. During the season the play of the Purple Knights left much to be desired, both in efficiency and intestinal fortitude. But when it counted the most the "next year" Knights demonstrated they had what it takes and without their big man, Hal Hellerman too. Take Bob Laemel for instance. The 5-10 sophomore was riding high before the first encounter between the two schools but he was stopped "cold" in the scoring column, netting a big goose egg. But as the script would have it, the former All-Met selection came back to lead the Purple Knights to their most glorious hour and walked off with the M.V.R. award. In all, he bagged 28 points, leading the Purple Knights in a 76-72 overtime victory.

Three other sophomores - Ed Wysocki, Tony Granger and Joe Colello - also showed what they had under pressure along with the old man of next year, junior Dick Whitcomb.

In many games the Glinesmen seemed to run out of gas. Whatever it was no one seemed to know but next year this problem may be greatly alleviated when the yearlings become of age and eligibility.

After a mediocre 7-7 record the frosh started to roll and the only thing that eventually stopped them was the schedule. With the victory the Fairfield freshmen the Junior Knights concluded a win streak which reached six to make their overall season's record stand at 13-7.

Coach Glines, although lacking the necessary height to be really in good shape, will get much needed depth in at least five yearlings next season. In Tom Lipkowitz, Tom McCarthy, Richie Khentigan, Joe Dunn and Dave Breibart. Coach Glines can substitute freely without showing a deficit on the scoreboard.

Final statistics for the season showed five players finishing in double figures. Hal Hellerman, who missed the last seven games, was tops with a 15.7 average. Bob Laemel was next with 14.90 followed by Ed Wysocki (12.7), Tony Granger (10.2) and Dick Whitcomb (10).

Wysocki was tops in the rebounding department with 200 followed by Hellerman, Laemel and Whitcomb.

Sticklers!

WHAT IS THE MAN WHO KEEPS THE
CIGARETTE MACHINES
FILLED WITH LUCKIES?
(SEE PARAGRAPH AT RIGHT)

THE REALLY GREAT MEN of history are forgotten men. Who did throw the overalls in Mrs. Murphy's chowder? Is Kilroy still here? Does anyone remember Dear John's last name? No, friends, they're all (Sob!) forgotten. So right now, let's pay homage to the greatest of them all—the man who keeps the cigarette machine filled with Luckies! Let's honor the guy who supplies the one cigarette that's packed end to end with fine, light, good-tasting tobacco, toasted to taste even better. Let's salute (Fanfare!) the Vender Tender! Touching, isn't it?
